This is a highly personal selection of photographs amassed by Mary McCartney, oldest child of The Beatles singer Paul McCartney. As the title suggests, it's split into two volumes: one for color and one for black and white images. The book shows McCartney's love for quiet, intimate moments off the beaten track but it also gives an extraordinary behind-the-scenes insight into the lives of celebrities.

"I didn't put photos in for it to be a celebrity or non-celebrity," McCartney tells Time. "I am interested in shooting all different types of people. I find a lot of people inspirational. I'm interested in people, in their stories."
