Although this can be read as a stand alone book, it's recommended that you read the first in the series, Taken With You, first.

Maya's life seems to have hit the pinnacle of perfection: as well as having landed her dream job, the curvy designer is falling for her gorgeous billionaire boss. And better still, he seems head over heels for her. Maya's never imagined a life like this, a man like this. What could be better?

But shadows from her past cast doubt in her mind and old insecurities haunt her. They are nothing in comparison with the ghosts that Daniel Rochester carries with him, though, and the past begins to send Maya's world spinning out of control. Will the love that's growing between her and Daniel save them from their own pasts, or will their lives collapse before their eyes when the truth is revealed?

This 20,000 word novella is the second in the Billionaires and Curves Series and is recommended for adult readers. The third installment is due out in late March 2014.
