Háblanos del amor. Reflexiones sobre la poesía de Kahlil Gibran: El Profeta (Spanish Edition) OSHO
«Las personas que han comprendido el significado de la vida se dirigen sólo a aquellos que entienden el amor, pues el amor es el significado de la vida».

Osho reflexiona junto con su audiencia sobre el amor en distintos niveles de la vida: el matrimonio, los hijos, el trabajo, la religión, la amistad, la belleza. La idea primordial reside en que el amor, al ser fundamento de todo, es infinito y para que trascienda necesita libertad. Hay que dejar que el amor florezca por sí solo en cada uno de nuestros actos, lo peor que podemos hacer es atarlo con la necesidad de poseer a nuestra pareja, a nuestros hijos, a todo lo que nos rodea; detener el vuelo del amor es la manera más sencilla de acabar con él.

Este libro representa un diálogo sobre lo fundamental de la vida con varios fragmentos de El Profeta de Kahlil Gibran, en el que el poeta libanés alcanzó la esencia del místico y del que según las propias palabras del autor: «es música pura, un misterio tal que la poesía a veces puede captar, pero sólo a veces. Han pasado siglos, ha habido grandes hombres, pero Kahlil Gibran es una categoría en sí mismo. No puedo concebir que aun en el futuro exista la posibilidad de otro hombre con una comprensión tan profunda del corazón humano, de la incógnita que nos rodea».
