A pequena cozinha em Paris (Portuguese Edition) Rachel Khoo

A culinária francesa sempre despertou paixões, seja pela sofisticação, pelos sabores delicados ou pelos aromas perfumados. Foram todas essas características que hipnotizaram Rachel Khoo e a levaram a se mudar para um pequeno apartamento em Paris e mergulhar de cabeça na gastronomia mais chic do mundo. Depois de anos morando na cidade, Rachel se formou na prestigiosa escola de culinária Le Cordon Bleu e passou a dar seu toque especial a vários pratos renomados, como o boeuf bourguignon e o coq au vin.

A pequena cozinha em Paris traz essas versões especiais dos clássicos e vai muito além dos livros de culinária tradicionais. A jovem chef britânica complementa suas criações com curiosidades sobre cada prato e detalhes do dia a dia na capital francesa. Do irreverente muffin de croque madame ao frango com limão e lavanda, Rachel celebra e desmistifica a culinária francesa, revelando como é fácil transportar para a nossa casa a beleza e o aconchego parisienses. Todas as mais de 100 receitas podem ser preparadas por qualquer um, mesmo numa cozinha apertada e com ingredientes encontrados no supermercado da esquina. As dicas e receitas de Rachel trarão um quelque chose especial ao seu dia a dia.

Produzido pela BBC de Londres, o programa de TV que deu origem ao livro foi exibido com grande sucesso no GNT, e Rachel Khoo conquistou muitos fãs no Brasil.

O livro é fartamente ilustrado com belas fotos da autora em Paris e dos pratos, todos com receitas testadas por Rachel.

Famosa por propor uma culinária francesa acessível e sem complicações, Rachel Khoo já prepara uma nova série de TV.
