Adam, Where Are You? Come Out From Under Your Cover

Not all that appears to be good is of God unless you know the true spirit of its intent, its motive – its purpose.

Adam, Where are You? is a genesis question. It requires an honest answer in order to uncover the true spiritual condition of our soul.

God asks this question because the conflicts that we face are due to the lack of communication that causes division; and yet it is not with others, but rather within ourselves.

As long as we remain under our cover, we simply do not know and understand ourselves as well as we think. We cover ourselves because we don't know and understand the heart of God that is found under His covering.

Join in this journey of the soul to understand the answer to God's question; to reveal our true intentions and to discover the truth of God's loving intentions for us – His purpose.
