Star Dreams Donna Monday

Troy Hazelton has dreams of making a hit Hollywood movie someday. Right now, though, he's making a name for himself as a talented commercial and video producer/director in the highly competitive New York City market. Troy and his sister, Shelby London, have taken their African American owned independent production company, Horizon City Productions, from practically nothing to a thriving operation. But, that's not enough to satisfy Troy's star dream desires. He longs to see his name up on the big screen and is determined to find the right movie idea to make it happen.

Troy isn't the only one dreaming of a bigger and better career. The talent pool at Horizon City includes new and fresh actors looking for that one big break, and an aging and desperate actress doing whatever she can to get one more juicy role. Like many show business wannabes, they discover that it's easier to dream about hitting the big time than it is to actually achieve it in the real world. Making it in show business often means toiling away in obscurity until that one special project comes along and changes your life.

Star Dreams is about the day-to-day lives of the people who make Horizon City Productions all that it is – the deals, the auditions, the manipulations, the relationships, the production shoots and the plain out freaky.

Who will be climbing the ladder of show business success?

Who will be left at the bottom?

Who will get their big break in a movie?

Who will be disappointed?

Who will use sex to keep their name in lights?

Who will use charm?

Who is headed for a nervous breakdown?

Who is in danger?

Who will manipulate their lover?

Who will fall in love?

The answers are all inside of this hot page turner.
