Never Too Late Nancy L. Cratty

Carly Weston believes handsome attorney Adam Masterson is everything she ever wanted in a husband. But when she tries to share the gospel with him, he mocks her religious values. Disenchanted, she returns to her small Nevada hometown and finds an unexpected chance at love with former schoolmate Kolton Raywood.

Although he lacks Adams professional polish, Kolton's strong testimony and rugged good looks give Carly reason to risk her heart again. But there's a secret he hides beneath his tough exterior—and speculations about his tragic past could destroy their chance for love.

A beautifully crafted novel that reveals the very human consequences of wrongly judging others, Never Too Late shows that for love to grow, it requires forgiveness and understanding.
