A broken vampire and a driven doctor, seized by a passion neither can afford.

Biting Love, Book 9

Dr. Alexis Byornsson has her hands full in the ER when her patient's uncle blows into the exam room. Stitching up a five-year-old's cut is hard enough without a blond god distracting her all to hell.

To say she's furious is putting it mildly—not that anyone would notice. Not with the legendary control that's earned her the nickname "Dr. Frozen".

Luke Steel never knew a woman chastising him could be so sexy. But for the first time in three hundred years, passion stirs in his gut—along with panic. Since his wife was taken before his eyes in a brutal attack, he's sworn he'd never feel that powerless again.

Almost before either Luke or Alexis realize what's happening, they're sharing a blazing kiss that shatters her logical armor and unleashes his wholly unwanted mating instinct. And spurs a closer-than-skin enemy to put into motion a devastating plan for revenge.

Warning: This book contains a hot doctor and a hotter vampire messing up sterile surfaces. The usual rogue shenanigans, but this time covering deeper motives. Hang on to your stethoscopes at what's revealed!
