Evan's climb to stardom is a sure thing...or is it? Evan is the grandson of Ester, the original Easter Bunny and he thinks he is pretty hot stuff. So hot, that he takes his friends and his talents for granted. He believes he should be crowned the winner just because he is naturally so much better than everybody else. You know what they say, pride comes before a fall, and Evan is headed for an enormous fall. Will Evan recover from the fall? Will he know how to recover, and will anyone care enough to help him? Find out when you read about Evan's encounters with pride, humility, courage, friendship and second chances.
