Bethany Jones was trapped in her small Montana town, with no one but the locals happy with their monotonous and boring lives to keep her company. She has big dreams, dreams that she could never accomplish alone. Her friend tells her about a mail order bride service that helped her escape their small town, and Bethany decides to give it a try. She finds herself being purchased by the mysterious bear shifter Clint Cohen. She hastily agrees, but can she get through his tough exterior to the heart he holds inside?

Clint Cohen is a bear shifter that is missing something in his life. He is successful in business, but he does not have a family, and has been thrown out of his tribe. In order to make his way back to his roots, he needs to find a wife who can carry his children and his name, but has been unable to find someone who fits his strict demands. When he sees Bethany on the mail order bride website, he knows that she is the one for him, but can he let down his walls for her, and let her see how much he truly wants her?
