Prefab Eulogies, Volume 1: Nothings Houses David Wolach

Prefab Eulogies is fresh, fragmented, daring, a swarm of language that teases, provokes, tickles and frustrates, this is poetry for a frantic yet exhausted empire. -Linh Dinh David Wolach's powerpoems imagine us into a world where prefab texts, codes, lists, templates, and schemas rebel into habitations, "testy machines" and "the dumpster in a field abandoned by an American minimalist." Wolach projects an archive of visual-textual trivia onto a manuscript wall behind which The Office meets Duchamp meets pornified hip meets Avant-Garde, then sticks a price tag on his precise mess-cosmos and bulldozes right through. Prêt-à-lire never had it so right-on funny or fierce. Box it to go and take it away. -Amy King
